

Partnership Rules of Engagement Institute for Supply Management – Denver, Inc.

Compliance: Partner(s) shall abide by all Partnership Rules, ISM—Denver by-laws, and any other program rules. Failure to comply with Partnership Program requirements forfeits all rights to Partnership, which may be resold to others, with no obligation on the part of ISM—Denver. A Partnership Agreement involves a financial payment by a business to ISM—Denver Inc., [non-profit 501(c)(6)] to further ISM—Denver's mission, with an acknowledgement that the business has supported ISM-Denver's activities, programs, professional educational opportunities, or special events.

Payment: Partner(s) agrees to pay Partnership fee upon signature of contract. Failure to pay per agreement will result in loss of Partnership opportunity and any feespaid.

Cancellation: If Partner cancels the agreements within 30 days of signing agreement, a 75% refund will be given after the Partner agreement period and only if ISM—Denver is able to resell the Partnership.

General Restrictions: ISM—Denver reserves, in its sole discretion, the right to accept or reject any potential Partner. ISM—Denver is not required to provide any rationale for the acceptation or rejection of any Partner. ISM—Denver Board of Directors has the right to final approval to all Partnership requests.

Liability: Partner assumes entire responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, defend, and save the Institute for Supply Management—Denver, and their employees and agents harmless against all claims, losses, and damages to persons or property, governmental charges or fines, and attorney's fees.

Partners: ISM—Denver has the right to final approval to all Partnership requests. ISM—Denver has the right to edit information for length and content. The validity, interpretation, performance, and enforcement of this Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of Colorado (Governing Law).

These regulations are a part of the contract for Partnership, which does not become effective until countersigned by a duly authorized representative of the Institute for Supply Management—Denver. The acceptance of the payment that accompanies the application for Partnership does not constitute acceptance of a contract. ISM—Denver reserves the right to make such additional conditions, rules, and regulations as it deems necessary to ensure the success of the Partneredevent.
